Accessorial liability in national and international courts after Jogee

Felicity Gerry QC

Holding a person criminally responsible for acts that they didn't do themselves pushes the boundaries of just punishment.

The landmark case of R v Jogee saw the UK Supreme Court overturn 30 years of precedent on extended criminal liability.

Join Felicity Gerry QC, who led the defence team in Jogee, as she discusses the consequences of this judgment for Australia, Hong Kong, the European Court of Human Rights and the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia.

This seminar is a component of the Victorian Bar CPD Program and will carry one CPD point.
