Global Law Experts International Criminal Law Barrister 2023

2024 Global Law Experts White Collar Criminal Law Expert

2023 'One of the top 5 International Lawyers you want on your side' – Law and Crime Productions

Professor Felicity Gerry KC is admitted at the International Criminal Court (ICC) and the Kosovo Specialist Chambers (KSC) in The Hague, to the Bar of England & Wales and the Victorian Bar, Australia. She has also had ad hoc admission in Hong Kong and Gibraltar. Felicity is a dedicated and experienced advocate who leads for the defence in serious, complex, and sensitive trials and appeals at every level of court. She is known for her exceptional courtroom presence and has been described in Legal 500 as 'a leader in her field', 'a fearless and effective advocate', and 'a true inspiration to junior lawyers' and in Chambers and Partners as 'A wonderful fighter with an extraordinary intellect, she's very efficient and very good with clients'.

Felicity holds a PhD, a Master of Laws in International Governance (LLM Int Gov), a Bachelor of Laws (LLB), and a Graduate Certificate in University Teaching and Learning (GCUTL). She is a Professor of Legal Practice at Deakin University, Melbourne where she is the Unit Chair of 'Contemporary International Legal Challenges' and is involved in the clinical programs. She is also an Honorary Professor in the School of Health and Society at Salford University, researching the intersection between health, law, and education, particularly in Human Rights Law relating to Women, Children, and Persons with Disabilities.

Felicity specialises in Homicide, Terrorism, Modern Slavery, Financial crime, and War Crimes (ICL) and has had several career-defining cases:

- Currently defending Mr Al Hassan at the International Criminal Court.
- Led the memorandum on due diligence in investment listing on SGX for Justice for Myanmar which led to the $82m divestment of the Golden City scheme.
- Led the appeal in R v Jogee before the UK Supreme Court which corrected an error of law in complicity which was described by the BBC as a 'genuine moment of legal history.'
- Led the successful petition for mercy for Zak Grieve in NT, Australia and leads the posthumous petition for mercy for Christine Keeler in the UK.
- Provided "key" input into the reprieve from execution for Mary Jane Veloso in Indonesia.

Felicity has consulted for the UNODC and various NGOs. She has a long history of training professionals: this includes prosecutors in Rwanda on human trafficking, gender-based violence, and corruption law as part of the Bridges to Justice Project; the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association Modern Slavery Project and the Bangladesh Judiciary Management Project. Her policy submissions have led to changes in the law on Modern Slavery, FGM and Reproductive Rights and supported approaches to Afghanistan post-withdrawal.

She currently leads a Victorian Legal Services Board funded research project on the experiences of trafficked women in criminal justice. She led a death penalty study for the Commission of Human Rights for the Philippines and a Human Trafficking report in 2023 for the International Bar Association and contributed to the 2022 Edge of Law Report in key legal challenges in the Asia-Pacific for the Bar Human Rights Committee and the American Bar Association Rule of Law Initiative.

Felicity is widely published in the fields of women and law, technology and law, and reforming justice systems. She is the co-author of The Sexual Offences Handbook and contributed to Annotated Leading Cases of International Criminal Tribunals, the Research Handbook on Feminist Engagement in International Law, Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery Law and Practice, and is the Editor of ANZSIL Perspective.
